MAYOR EVANS DIES FOLLOWING VICTORY

End Comes Early Monday Morning To Beloved Official After Long and Game Fight For Life

Leslie P. Evans, Mayor of Richmond, died at 3:30 o'clock Monday morning.

Richmond mourns the loss of as true a man, as noble a character, as loyal a friend and as generous a heart as she has ever known.

The news came as a dreadful shock to every one, and especially so to those loyal friends, who on Saturday saw his administration of the past four years vindicated and endorsed in the Democratic primary.

All knew he had been desperately ill. But it was thought he had passed the crisis and was now on the road to recovery. Only Friday, his physician had assured prominent Richmond citizens that he would live and return to the home he loved so well and the city which he was so proud to call his home.

But man proposes and God disposes. The brave spirit which had battled so long against great odds, was too weakened to conquer and the end came peacefully and quietly at the Good Samaritan Hospital just before the dawn of Monday.

And so the city mourns the loss of the man who many declare has made the "best Mayor Richmond ever had." During his term of office, it has emerged from a rural village to a modern little city. The paving of the principal streets revolutionized the appearance of the city entirely. And as long as her people shall enjoy them, they will be a reminder of the Mayor who fought for progress and improvement along every line.

Mayor Evans was a member of one of Madison county's oldest and best known families. He was a son of the late Dr. George W. Evans and Nannie Chenault Evans, both gathered to their fathers years ago. He was born at White Hall, this county, on December 28, 1878, and therefore was 44 years old, just reaching the full vigor of the meridian of life, with many years of usefulness and service apparently ahead of him.

His devoted wife, who was Miss Laura Lynn, and five children survive. They are Nannie, Leslie P., Jr., Marie Lynn, Richard and George. One sister, Mrs. Thomas H. Pickels, of Baltimore and four brothers, also, are living. The brothers are George Evans, of Kansas City, Kansas; William Evans, recently of Kansas; and Overton and Joe Evans, of Mt. Sterling.

For almost 20 years Mayor Evans had been a deacon in the First Baptist church of Richmond and Superintendent of its Sunday School. He lived his religion, as he lived his life, before the public. There was nothing concealed. He loved his Lord and sought to walk in His precepts, and no man in Richmond or anywhere else was so known of all men as a true follower of the meek and lowly Nazarene as Mayor Evans. He was always ready for the call to come up higher, and those who

Mayor Evans' Last Words

(By Associated Press)

Lexington, Aug. 8.—When Leslie P. Evans, Richmond Mayor who died at the Good Samaritan Hospital here at 3:30 o'clock this morning, was told Saturday night of his nomination for Mayor, he said:

"Now I can sleep well to-night."

He expressed himself as being proud of the nomination and of his friends, who honored him, without any electioneering on his part.

Mr. Evans had been here since July 22. He was believed to be getting along as well as could be expected his condition suddenly became critical late last night.

He was conscious until a few seconds before his death. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of his death, the doctors said. The body was taken to Richmond today.

know "Les" Evans, his life and his works, know that as certainly as there is a life hereafter and an eternal reward for those who believe on the Son of God, so certainly is he today hearing those hallowed words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Meanwhile the city wears mourning and every heart is sad that this good man shall walk among us no more.

Funeral Tuesday Afternoon

The funeral services of Mayor L. P. Evans will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church. His pastor, Rev. O. Olin Green, will conduct the service.

The remains were brought to his home in Burnamwood shortly after noon Monday.

The City Hall was draped with mourning Monday morning by officials when news came of his death. Probably all the business houses in town will be closed during the hour of the funeral service Tuesday afternoon. A great many business men told the Daily Register they expected to close.

The pallbearers will be:

Active—Wm. Evans, George Evans, Overton Evans, Harve Chenault, and Waller Chenault. Honorary—R. E. Turley, Wm. O'Neil, T. K. Hamilton, J. Greenleaf, A. K. McCowan, C. F. Chenault, and Hale Dean.

Anti-Beer Bill Moves Forward

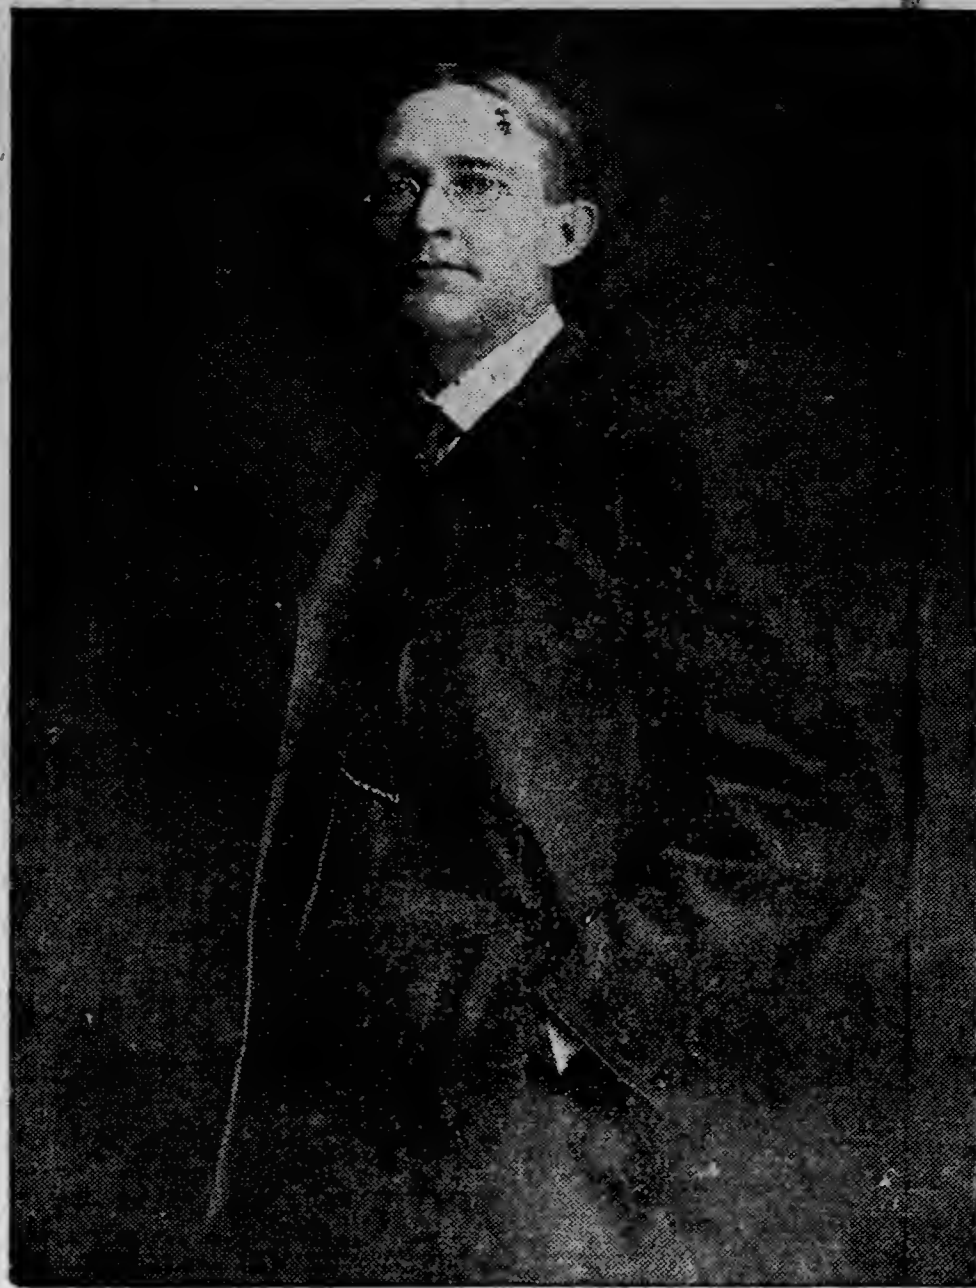

(By Associated Press)

Washington, August 8.—The Willis-Campbell anti-beer bill moved forward in the Senate today. One amendment, which would fine and imprison prohibition agents who violate constitutional rights was discussed by Senator Stanley, of Kentucky. He criticized the prohibition agents, saying: "Citizens are waylaid and held up and searched" on highways and in homes where persons were immune.

Oldham had taken out warrants charging many of the members of the carnival concern with gambling and breach of the peace. A number of the members spent the night in jail, but later plead guilty to the charges and were given fines ranging from $10 and costs up. They replaced the fines. The show had been here several days. It may leave here for Irvine at once.

FOUR WOMEN WIN PARTY NOMINATIONS

But Mrs. Renner Loses For Sheriff In Rockcastle County—Miss Mahan Wins

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 7.—Reports of Saturday's primary election filtering into Louisville today indicate the nomination of three women aside from Mrs. Ida F. Edger, democratic candidate for jailer in Woodford county. Mrs. Belle Napier won the democratic nomination for jailer in Breathitt over ten men and Mrs. Charles C. Woodbury, of Louisville, the only undorsed successful candidate of either party in Jefferson county, defeated her man opponent for the office of tax commissioner. Miss Sarah Mahan won the democratic nomination for circuit clerk in Boyle county.

Mrs. John Renner, of Mt. Vernon, republican candidate for sheriff of Rockcastle county, was defeated by a man. In Louisville W. Overton Harris won the democratic nomination for Mayor. Huston Quinn, Judge of the State Court of Appeals, is impossible for the republican nomination for the same office.

IN OTHER COUNTIES

Pres Kimball defeated Frank Bullock and Pelham Johnston for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge in Lexington. Powell Bosworth won the sheriff nomination and Spence Carriek defeated Hogan Yancey for County Attorney.

Tom A. Rice, present county judge, won over Rowan Sandley and W. G. Gooch for the democratic nomination for county judge in Lincoln county. Rice's plurality over Sandley was only 38 votes. George DeBorde won for sheriff, Kelly Francis for county attorney, Herbert Reynolds for tax commissioner. Marshall Newland defeated Stewart Carson for county clerk and Bud Peck won for jailer.

Judge H. C. Kennedy defeated Judge B. J. Bethune for the republican nomination for Circuit Judge in the Pulaski Wayne, Rockcastle and Clinton district, by about 2,500 majority. The race there was a scorcher.

J. D. Bush, a brother of popular Deputy Sheriff Sant Bush, of this county, won the democratic nomination for sheriff of Clark county, which is equivalent to election as the republicans put no candidates up there.

Harry V. McChesney, once a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, was defeated for the democratic nomination for the Legislature in Franklin county by Arch Quarles, a young farmer.

Pet Bacs Is "Missing"

Reports from Orchard street are that "Pap" Broadbush's pet bass has disappeared from the tank in which it usually disported with a brim, also a pet. It is understood that certain well known fishermen and sportsmen who conduct their daily business in the vicinity of the Kellogg wholesale grocery, have had it politely suggested that it might be wise for that bass to be back in his usual haunts at an early date.

DEMOCRATS SELECT SPLENDID TICKET

Primary Passes Off Quietly Saturday But With Much Interest In Results

In one of the hottest primary elections ever seen in Madison county Saturday, Elmer Deatherage was nominated for sheriff over Van Benton by 153 majority; John D. Goodloe won over G. B. Angel for county judge by about 839; Willis Kennedy defeated Albin Cornelison for Representative in the Legislature by 1,069 majority; Charles Rogers won the jailer's race by more votes than both of his opponents combined, and W. J. Baxter, of Jessamine county, carried Madison for Commonwealth's Attorney by 700.

Baxter also carried his home county of Jessamine by over 700; Powell by over 250, and a late report from Winchester says he carried Clark county by 130. He has won easily in the district composed of the four counties.

In the city races in Richmond L. P. Evans won for the majority nomination by 140 over Jeff Mitchell, with W. E. Blanton third and Robert Golden fourth.

Claude Devore defeated Jim Potts for Chief of Police by about 143 majority; G. Murray Smith defeated Dave Powers for Police Judge by 337 majority and H. C. Rice defeated Eugene Moynahan for City Attorney by 502 majority.

The councilmanic ticket which was endorsed by number of business men some weeks ago, swept the boards, every one being chosen. The new Council will be composed of the following:

First Ward—Crutcher and McKinney.

Second Ward—Turpin and Hamilton.

Third Ward—O'Neil and Martin.

The closest race in the county was, of course, the sheriff's race, in which interest was intense.

All of the defeated candidates appear to have taken their defeats like good game democrats and seem ready to rally to the support of the successful nominees.

Everyone seems agreed that, taken as a whole, the ticket is one of the strongest ever presented to the voters of Madison county.

The vote given in the tables on the first and second pages, is the same as the official count, having been checked over accurately from the ballot book stubs as returned to the county clerk's office here Monday. It shows the official majorities received by each candidate.

Mr. Johnson's majority on estimated complete returns is 2,000.

For Commonwealth Attorney, Charles B. Luker, present county judge of Laurel county, won over Godfrey J. Roden, incumbent. Majorities are: Laurel (fifteen out of thirty precincts) 600; Jackson (six out of twenty precincts) 92; Clay (incomplete) 1,500. His estimated majority in the district is 2,500.

For Representative from Laurel and Rockcastle, Charles A. Chandler carried Rockcastle by about 1,500 plurality and John F. Pigg carried Laurel by about 700 plurality, giving Mr. Chandler the nomination by about 800 in his district.

The democrats had no candidate. The following were nominated for county offices in Laurel: P. R. Pennington county judge, 400; J. K. Lewis, county attorney, 300; A. E. Prevatt, circuit clerk, no opposition; A. C. Peters, tax commissioner, no opposition.

Tandy Jones and Warren Scoville for sheriff; J. H. Harrison, W. H. Steele and John W. Cook for county court clerk; George W. Swanner, R. C. Gill and John R. James for jailer, each were claiming victory, and the official count Wednesday will be necessary to determine the winners in these three races.

A. G. Wardrup and William Broughton for jailer, were the only democrats in the Laurel primary, but it is thought there will be several independent candidates in the November election.

No report of serious disturbance has come from any part of the county, though the circuit judge race was extremely bitter.

Fattening Market Birds

Brings Increased Profits
are in thin condition, according to poultry specialists at the College of Agriculture, feeding the market birds a ration of this kind not only makes a bigger bird but also one which will have higher quality as a broiler or roaster. The most expensive part of rearing a chick is building the frame and the most profitable part that of putting on flesh or fat. As a usual thing, the poultry raiser does the costly work of building the frame and eaves the profit to the packer or dealer who increases the value of the bird by a few days of proper feeding.

The basis of a fattening ration should be corn meal with skim milk or sour milk. A porridge made up of a mash with corn meal as a basis and a mixture of several other grains has been found to be a satisfactory fattening ration. Even while being given the porridge the chick should be supplied with fresh water twice each day.

SAYS SHE ALMOST GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Louisville Resident Hadn't Seen
Well Day in Years—Is in Perfect Health Now

"Just think of it, four weeks ago I had almost given up hope and here I am today well and happy," said Mrs. Minnie Hirt, 420 East Market street, Louisville, Ky., in relating her remarkable restoration to health by taking Tanlac.

"For a whole year I didn't know what it was to have a well day and my stomach was so upset I ate barely enough to keep alive. If I ate any solid food at all I was sure to have sharp pains in my chest and in the pit of my stomach soon afterwards. No matter how careful I was about eating I was certain to be miserable for hours afterwards, and finally this stomach trouble seemed to tear my whole system to pieces. I became nervous, lost all my energy and felt so weak I could hardly hold up my head. I was as discouraged as any human being ever gets to be, as I thought my case was hopeless.

"I feel like a different person since taking Tanlac, have a splendid appetite and my digestion is just perfect. I sleep all night long without waking once now and in the morning get up feeling as fresh and happy as a girl. I have gained ten pounds in weight, too, and my friends tell me that they never saw me look as well as I do right now. I know I never felt better in my life, and I am glad of the opportunity to say a good word for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton & Son and good drug-gists everywhere.

"What's Wife Worth?"

A Perfect Photoplay

William Christy Cabanne's new Robertson-Cole super attraction, "What's a Wife Worth?" will be the leading feature at local theatres Monday. Mr. Cabanne, who was the author and director of "The Stealers," has given the screen one of the most wholesome comedy dramas in his latest picture. Critics agree that the photoplay, judged from all angles is as near perfection as possible.

The story tells of the marriage of a wealthy man's son and a village belle. Of the early disruption of the union by malicious acquaintances. How, following the divorce, a son is born and how the mother sees in him the image of his father and is devoted to him. The wealthy man's son marries again and a baby is born to his second wife, but dies. The substitution, by the family physician, of the son by his first wife for the dead baby, finally brings about a reconciliation between mother and father.

Poultry receipts are increasing

Receipts of fresh eggs are almost normal for this season of the year, with quality generally reported as improving and prices ruling a little higher than previous week.

SWIFT PRODUCE REVIEW

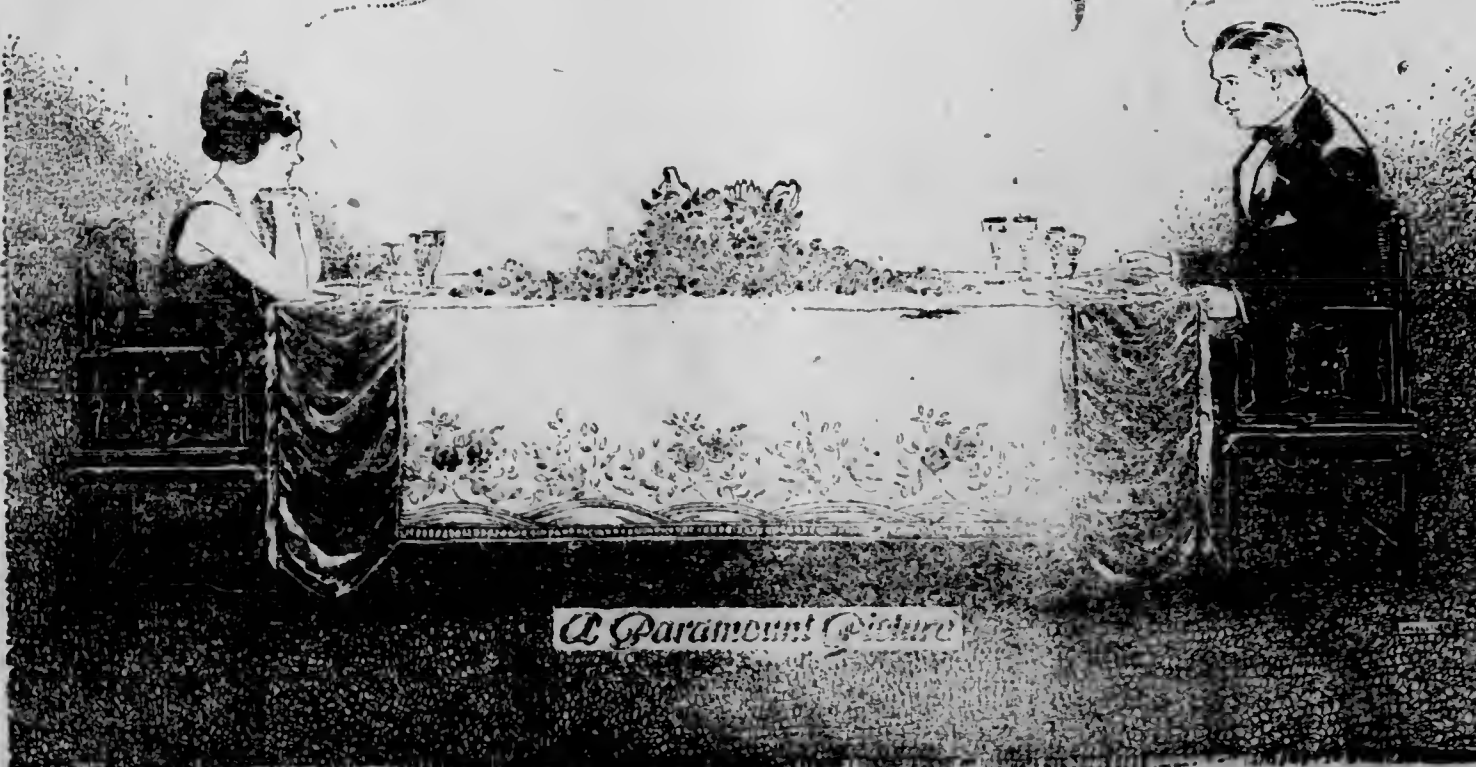

The butter market has shown some weakness during the latter part of the week, resulting in definitely lower prices at the close. This is due to a slight falling off in the demand and the fact that production is keeping up remarkably well, considering the season.

HUSTONVILLE BEATS BEARS IN ELEVENTH

Umpiring Helps Hustonville in Second — Covington Hits Home Run

The Richmond Bears journeyed to Hustonville Saturday where they were beaten in an eleven inning contest by a score of 3 to 2, at Wilder Park, by the Hustonville team. Ab Oldham pitched a fine game for the locals but he made a costly error in the eleventh that resulted in the winning run for Hustonville. A rather raw decision on the part of Hanson, one of the umpires, kept the Bears from scoring twice in the second inning. John Park made a clean hit over first in this inning which scored two runs ahead of him but the ump ruled the ball a foul and the locals had to go eleven rounds to lose the game.

The breaks also went in the favor of Hustonville as they had a plain error converted into a double play. In the ninth with Welch on first Jennings hit to Adams, the Hustonville guardian of the short field. He booted the ball but it bounded right into the second base man's hand and after forcing Welch out threw in time to first to get Jennings.

Covington sent the game into extra innings with a clean drive to right field for a home run in the ninth inning. There was no one on at that time or the game would have resulted in a different way. He also played a fine game at second, making a fine one-handed stop.

Embry played his usual fine game at second for Hustonville. He handled ten chances without an error.

The winning run was scored in the eleventh by Wilder being safe after one man was down. Adams sent him to second with a sacrifice and he scored when Peyton, who batted for Reid, singled to left field.

The Bears are sure giving the fans some real base ball playing four extra inning games out of five. This was sure a hard to lose. What do you say?

Oldham & Hackett

Surest thing you know!

THEY DO IT!

We spent years experimenting with different blends of tobaccos to obtain —a new flavor

—a more pleasing aroma
—and to obtain what is more important still—the one thing that smokers have always wished a cigarette would do—

"SATISFY!"

And Chesterfields do "satisfy." For in Chesterfields the tobaccos—Turkish, and Burley and other choice home-grown varieties—are blended differently—and better—to give you and all smokers that greater measure of cigarette enjoyment.

They Satisfy
—and the blend can't be copied.
